THE MONSTER WITHIN

I've been extradiated to madness
With all my demons within
They're reaching out from the subconscious
Pulling me slowly down

Into the pit of depression
Where all I know is hate
Forgetting all what love is
And I know this is my fate

Without you, one part is missing
The emptiness inside, makes me insane
Without you, one part is missing
The emptiness inside, makes me unleash
The monster within

You have been gone for so long
It has taken me
You have been gone for so long
It has taken me

Anger and dispair
Anxiety and pain
Only you could heal the damage
Only you can hear a dead mans cries

Without you, one part is missing
The emptiness inside, makes me insane
Without you, one part is missing
The emptiness inside, makes me unleash
The monster within

FOR BETTER OR WORSE

I fall behind, the darkness takes me
Feel lost in time, no wounds and I still bleed

My scars, they never heal
And my fire, keep closing in

Fortunate, I´m fortunate
To keep my heart, to keep my heart within

I am hiding the pain
Know all to well the story

And am I going insane?
Commit to the glory

The stars die out, my flame in motion
The needless shout, while I¥m fading to grey

My scars, they never heal
And my fire, keep closing in

Fortunate, I´m fortunate
To keep my heart, to keep my heart within

I am hiding the pain
Know all to well the story

And am I going insane?
Commit to the glory

Close your eyes
Believe the lie
Say your prayers
Been told to die

My scars, they never heal
And my fire, keep closing in

Fortunate, I¥m fortunate
To keep my heart, to keep my heart within

I am hiding the pain
Know all to well the story

And am I going insane?
Commit to the glory

SORROW NEVER BETRAYS

Cry out into a dead new world
An empty space that filles a blackened void
Die out, extinction masks itself
The wrath has come to take the murdered soul

By the power in me
I¥ll set you free
The darkest of time creeps in

Blind leading the lost
Deceived by the cross
The era of might is here

I fight the demons grip, the sorrows force sets in
One sorrow that obey, who never will betray

Clawing, scratch the wall within Espace a thought to be replaced once more
Fire burns the empty shell
Left in ash the sorrow burning black

By the power in me
I¥ll set you free
The darkest of time creeps in

Blind leading the lost
Deceived by the cross
The era of might is here

I fight the demons grip, the sorrows force sets in
One sorrow that obey, who never will betray
Sorrow that never betrays

SCARS OF MISERY

Never believed in all the pain that you're causing me
Hiding an urge that someday you will set me free
Can't you see that you're always afraid
While creating reality

Crave, a stronger source and a direct link to all your lies
Lying before you now
No remorse fighting the urges inside
Lie fallen while facing your fears

Drown in your fear
I face your hate

Never thought I would stay and no one fades away
In all the shades of grey, with my scars of misery

Grabbing the lies and trying to fight through my blinding shame
Beating me down getting so sick of your frightening game
Can't you see I have lost through your will Stand alone by my burning fear

No, don't accept keeping an eye out for self perception
I see it clear
Carry the weight of the truth that prevail
The path is gone and it's growing more narrow

Never thought I would stay and no one fades away
In all the shades of grey, with my scars of misery

Drawn to, lightning fast explosions
Mercy, finding the righteous inside

Never thought I would stay and no one fades away
In all the shades of grey, with my scars of misery

DEAD BECOMES ALIVE

Destroy
Going insane over the thoughts that bringing me down
The evil madness, leave me alone

Feeling the pain, rising above, and rather I die
Than living through this, hell I create

The changes will never come, until you are ready for them
Look beyond the fate, time to decide

And now, the dead becomes alive
And I, I'm falling behind
Walking the earth

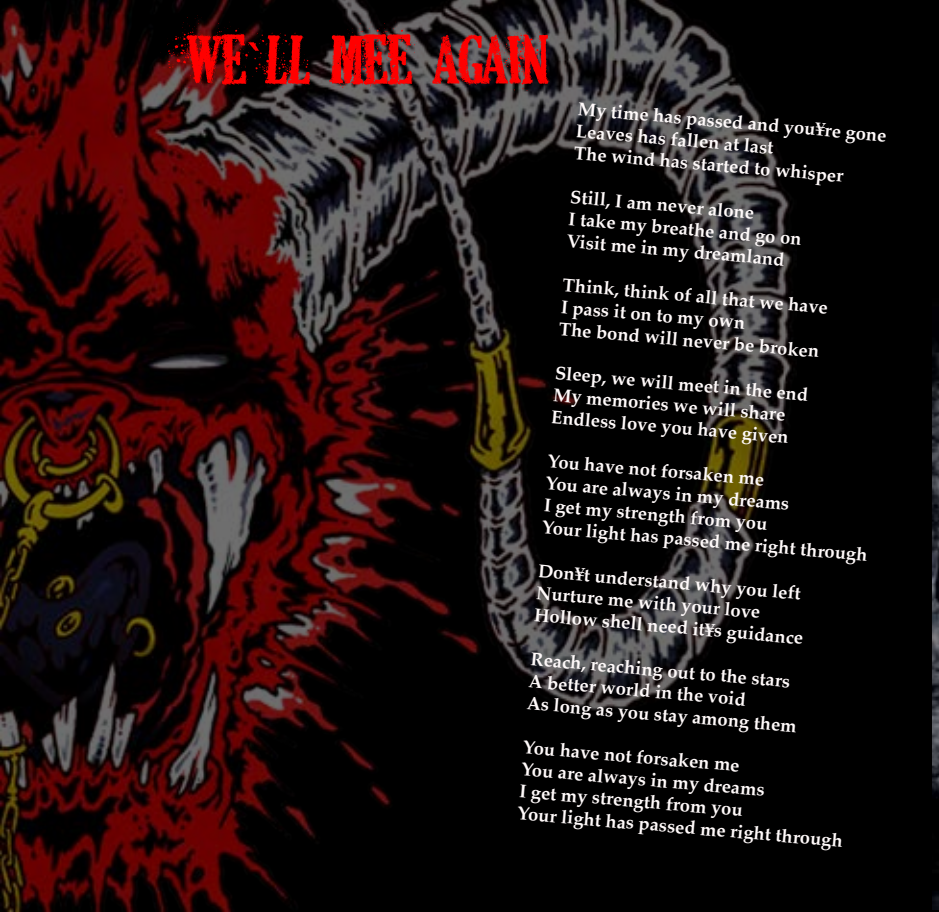
Fall out, into battle
Inside, taking over
Wallow, in the ashes
Bloodlust, stay forever

Dealing with hate, nobody knows, except for the damned
Ripping my heart out, the final abuse

Choosing the path, leading to death, blinded by you
Growing more tired, of living a lie

And now, the dead becomes alive
And I, I'm falling behind

I have a lust to bring control, sanctify my life and go
Say no more just know, the truth revealed as an answer



WE´LL MEE AGAIN

My time has passed and you¥re gone
Leaves has fallen at last
The wind has started to whisper

Still, I am never alone
I take my breathe and go on
Visit me in my dreamland

Think, think of all that we have
I pass it on to my own
The bond will never be broken

Sleep, we will meet in the end
My memories we will share
Endless love you have given

You have not forsaken me
You are always in my dreams
I get my strength from you
Your light has passed me right through

Don¥t understand why you left
Nurture me with your love
Hollow shell need it¥s guidance

Reach, reaching out to the stars
A better world in the void
As long as you stay among them

You have not forsaken me
You are always in my dreams
I get my strength from you
Your light has passed me right through

Never believed in all the pain that you´re causing me

Never thought I would stay and no one fades away
In all the shades of grey, with my scars of misery

STRIVE TO STRUGGLE

Bleed out, a darkened beast awakens
Inside you can feel it caving in
You¥nve lost me, beyond all the

Thoughts of, consuming energy I¥m weak
Release an overflow of hate
Don¥t need the burning inside

I never thought I would need
Nothing leaves today
Never listen to me

No one stays, when I fall
My fate will reign, I fall

I find all my anger running through me
Calling out to war prepare to fight
I will see, bleeding, dying

Kill all, the greed thet walks around you
Nothing ever stays the same
Keep up while I am falling behind

I never thought I would need
Nothing leaves today
Never listen to me

No one stays, when I fall
My fate will reign, I fall
I fall

Promised a lie
My time to die

I, have another path to find
The murder will continue unTil
You can see the righteous sign
I¥m screaming for a helping hand

MySwallow the fear

Take you in and spit you out
Know for sure what you¥re about
Leave me be Im sick you
Tell me what I have to do

I never thought I would need
Nothing leaves today
Never listen to me

No one stays, when I fall
My fate will reign, I fall
I fall

THE DARK MIND

Destroy, my shattered fear
A sanction beneath me upholds you
Feast on, the global losses
You¥re frozen in time

And as I see, we are no more

I, know that you¥re no one
I want to be
All of your failures
Will set me free
Set me free

As I¥ve found out, most of you
Don¥t even believe in your power
Crumbles, all I see
Pathetic excuse

Lifeless, what you¥ve become
Fight back for your will to be stronger
Breathless, drown while breathing
I¥m lost in your light

And as I see, we are no more

I, know that you¥re no one
I want to be
All of your failures
Will set me free
Set me free

Dying out, while most alive
Dreams take over, inside the dark mind

Never, do it again, another battle
You will fall, you will fall

You will fall alone

I, know that you¥re no one
I want to be
All of your failures
Will set me free
